

Kennedy Wilson Releases 2020 Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) Report

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Global real estate investment company Kennedy Wilson (NYSE:KW) has released its 2020 Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) Report.

The report highlights Kennedy Wilson's commitment to managing sustainability opportunities, minimizing environmental impacts, and playing a role in enhancing the communities where the company operates across its global business. The report also provides environmental data for select properties, details how Kennedy Wilson expanded its social impact investing activities, and continued to care for employees, residents, and office workers through 2020 while providing much-needed support to philanthropic organizations creating positive lasting impacts.

"As our ESG program continues to evolve and expand, we are proud to share our latest ESG Report and detail the achievements we have made this year, including reaching our first carbon emissions reduction goal," said William McMorrow, Chairman and CEO of Kennedy Wilson. "2020 shined a spotlight on Kennedy Wilson's strong infrastructure, and we were grateful to continue building communities across our global footprint while supporting our incredible team of employees, our residents, and people who work in our buildings through a year like no other."

"It is a core part of our culture to positively impact the lives of our employees and the communities where we are fortunate to do business," said Mary Ricks, President of Kennedy Wilson. "We are proud of our achievements from this past year and look forward to reporting on our progress as we continue on our ESG journey."
